The attached map of Africa is forwarded per your request this morning. You'll note that the date of the map is 1 December 1960; it is, however, up to date at the moment. Sierra Leone, shown on the map as to become independent in 1961, will acquire its independence before the end of April. We expect to have a new map made up within a month and will forward a copy to you as soon as it is ready.
